OVERVIEW

Daneis is an Intellectual Property Attorney whose practice covers various aspects of Intellectual Property, Innovation and Technology. He started his practice as an in-house counsel for a local title company. He went into solo practice to broaden the scope of his knowledge and practice into other areas of law. Daneis came to Advent to assist in offering complete IP portfolio management for startups and entrepreneurs.

Daneis' practice primarily focuses on transactional matters related to Intellectual Property including IP and technology licenses and agreements, trademark drafting and prosecution, copyright prosecution and protection, cybersecurity, E-commerce, and Artificial Intelligence. He also handles business law matters tangential to Intellectual Property including entity formation, mergers and acquisitions, and IP due diligence.

Daneis is involved in several legal groups, both locally and nationally. Daneis is involved with the American Inns of Court-Robert M. Spire Inn. He regularly presents for his pupillage's presentations and handles their technology needs. Daneis is a member of Phi Alpha Delta and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternities and participates both locally and nationally. Daneis has an LL.M. and received the Stanley Marion Fellowship during his studies.

In addition to his practice, Daneis is involved in the community. He, along with his wife, leads a 4H group that teaches children about animals, including caring for and showing animals. Daneis is co-superintendent of the rabbit show at the Douglas-Sarpy County Fair. Daneis also judges debate on weekends, helping shape the minds for the future.
